About us

BYJU'S is one of the world's leading education-media-technology companies, amongst the top 5 most valued startups in India and growing rapidly. It offers highly engaging, effective and adaptive learning products such as BYJU's The Learning App (classes 4-12), Disney BYJU's Early Learn (classes 1-3), and competitive exam prep for JEE, NEET, CAT, IAS, GRE and GMAT. We are backed by marquee names like Zuckerberg, Sequoia, Tencent, Verlinvest, Sofina, Lightspeed, IFC and others. BYJU's is on a mission to disrupt education globally. BYJU's is the most loved and preferred education app for students across age groups. Today, it has over 30+ million downloads, close to 2.5 million annual paid subscriptions with an average learning-time of over an hour on the app every day!

What we're looking for

We are one of the world's leading education-media-technology companies and we are making millions fall in love with learning. We are growing the team that develops the content for our magical learning experiences which includes videos, books, games, and more. If you are passionate about making the world "Think and Learn", we are the right place for you.

Description:

If you are someone who has... â— an ability to teach a concept simply and entertainingly, â— subject expertise in at least one of these -- Maths, Science, Social Studies, and/or English, â- an understanding of, or an interest in, learning theories, and education product trends, â- the humility and drive to keep learning, unlearning, relearning concepts and processes, â-excellent written and verbal communication skills and a collaborative and can-do spirit, â- the ability to embrace chaos, uncertainty and volatility and work with a diverse set of stakeholders, in an agile and dynamic environment that promotes innovation,

...then we're looking for you! The position is a key part of the product team comprised of writers, editors, animators, artists, designers, engineers and more. We are a fun-loving team who really enjoy what we do and pride ourselves on building world-class products in record time.

Responsibilities

Your responsibilities will include, but not be limited to â—Researching and identifying learning strategies for students of all backgrounds and cognitive abilities, â— Writing and visualising intuitive and engaging scripts for videos, books, and games, â— Designing questions, adaptive assessments and personalized lesson plans, â— Collaborating with designers and engineers to get products ready to ship, â— Taking ownership of allocated tasks and driving your team's and your own growth.

Location & Compensation

This role is based in Bangalore. The compensation includes a performance-based variable pay.
